

Christine Wilson was born in Ohio and received her formal training from the Cleveland Institute of Arts. Since 1987 Chris has owned and operated Chris's Art Resource, an art rental and prop making business that serves the film industry.

Chris's works are in many private collections and in the public collection of the Cleveland Museum of Art. Hotel projects include The Sofitel Hotel, Los Angeles, The Borgata Hotel and Casino, Mandalay Bay Resort Hotel, Harrah's Hotel, The Four Seasons Hotel, Sheraton Gateway Hotel, The Santa Monica Delfina Hotel and The Bellagio Hotel. Chris has exhibited at the Juvve Gallery, The Contemporary Art Resource Gallery and the Eagle Rock Cultural Center, all in Los Angeles, and at the Joslyn Fine Art Center, Torrance, California.

Christine Wilson lives and works in Los Angeles, a city she finds endlessly surprising.
