

Peter Veitch earned a BA in Art from Fredonia State University in 1986 and an MS in Education with a concentration in Art Education, from Nazareth College in 1993. He has been teaching art in Rochester City School District, painting in his studio and exhibiting his work since then. His paintings have received awards in the Finger Lakes Show at the Memorial Art Gallery, and in the Rochester Contemporary Art Center Members' Exhibition.

Mr. Veitch's work is in the public collections of The Delfina Hotel, Santa Monica and The Sheraton Gateway in Los Angeles.